ePath Learning, Inc. Announces New Vice President of Software Engineering

January 8, 2014 – ePath Learning, Inc., a leader in cloud-based learning services announced today that they have expanded their executive team with the appointment of Michael Olivieri as Vice President, Software Engineering. In this role, Mr. Olivieri will be responsible for the future strategic direction of Software Engineering, IT and Product Management.

Mr. Olivieri has spent his entire career in software development. “Mike was with ePath Learning when we first started out. He was our original software architect, and was responsible for ePath Learning ASAP’s recognition as one of the best architected SaaS applications in the world. To this day, Mike carries with him the same vision, drive and determination that helped to establish ePath Learning as a leading cloud-based LMS provider,” stated Mr. Dudley Molina, President and CEO of ePath Learning. “This is an exciting time for ePath Learning, and with Mike’s return we are in a great position to support our expected future growth and new product development efforts.”

Prior to rejoining ePath Learning, Mr. Olivieri worked as a software engineering consultant to Pfizer Global R&D in Groton, CT and Farm Credit Financial Partners in Agawam, MA. More recently, he was responsible for a large portfolio of applications as the Applications Development Manager at Boar’s Head Provisions. There he led a group of web developers and designers, ERP programmers, Business Intelligence specialists, and Data Warehouse developers to a modernized IT software infrastructure.
