

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ePath Learning, Inc. has been named by the Connecticut Technology Council as an Award Winner in the 2013 Marcum Tech Top 40

August 13, 2013 - ePath Learning, Inc., announced today that for the second year in a row it has been named to the Marcum Tech Top 40, an annual compilation of the 40 fastest growing technology companies in Connecticut. Selection was based on the percentage revenue growth over four years.

ePath Learning develops innovative, world-class software applications that improve training and human performance for organizations. Its portfolio of corporate learning services includes cloud-based learning portals, enterprise social networking technology, and custom eLearning development services. These services support its continued vision to eliminate barriers that prevent anytime, anywhere learning via the internet.

“It gives us a great sense of honor to achieve this recognition once again,” stated Dudley Molina, President and CEO of ePath Learning, Inc. “The team at ePath Learning is dedicated to changing the world for the better by developing software that empowers enterprises to improve their performance through learning, and it’s this dedication and entrepreneurial spirit that sets our company apart from the competition.”

To qualify for the Marcum Tech Top 40, companies must have had operating revenues of at least $50,000 in 2009 and $3,000,000 in 2012, be headquartered in Connecticut, and own proprietary technology or proprietary intellectual property that contributes to a significant portion of the company's operating revenues; or devotes a significant proportion of revenues to the research and development of technology.
