

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ePath Learning, a Minority Business Enterprise, Certified by the GNEMSDC

July 12, 2012 - ePath Learning, Inc., a leader in cloud-based learning services, announced its certification as a Minority Business Enterprise by the Greater New England Minority Supplier Development Council (GNEMSDC).

Since 1999, ePath Learning has provided corporate learning solutions including online learning portals, enterprise social networks and custom eLearning course development. Eliminating barriers that prevent anytime, anywhere learning via the internet has been the foundation of ePath Learning's success. Our learning management service, ePath Learning ASAP, enables organizations of any size to create and deliver affordable, effective training anywhere, anytime via the cloud.

“We are pleased to join the ranks of GNEMSDC certified minority businesses,” said Dudley Molina, Founder, CEO and President, ePath Learning. “It is through the efforts of organizations like GNEMSDC that minority businesses are exposed to procurement opportunities that often would only be available to large public enterprises. We look forward to building relationships with the other MBEs, the GNEMSDC corporate members and corporate members of the National Minority Supplier Development Council.”

About GNEMSDC

The GNEMSDC is a non-profit affiliate of the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC). Its membership consists of local and national Fortune 500 corporations, government agencies, universities, financial institutions, associations and organizations. Since 1974, GNEMSDC has provided services to these members and to our certified minority business enterprises (MBEs). The Council is governed by a Board of Directors and funded by corporate membership dues, certification fees, contributions, in-kind services and grants.

The GNEMSDC serves the entire six New England States: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.
